The Architectural Committee will be performing its quarterly inspection during the month of March. One of the things we will be focusing on will be general landscape maintenance, which includes weeding, tree trimming and fertilizing.

Another major focus will be mailboxes. We will be looking to see that all mailboxes are of the approved type, are in good condition including paint and have the unit number affixed. If you have moved in within the last six months you are required to convert your old metal box to the new approved wooden type that can be purchased through Tommy Henderson (749-6869). Finally, we will be looking to see that carports are not being used for storage. Remember trash cans should not be visible from the street and other items should be stored inside your storage shed.

It is time to name a new Disaster Control Chief. This committee is established by our Rules and Regulations.

All present members of the committee, as well as those who ought to be, are urged to make their willingness to fill this position known to the Board.

Without a Chief Disaster Control Officer – the only response is to outlaw disasters. For any additional information contact Tom McCue Space 234 (749-1725).

If you are in need of a ride to your medical appointment, please call Jan, and she will find someone to drive you there. We are volunteers and more than happy to help in this way. If you have an emergency, however, call 911.

Getting To Know...

George "Scotty" Henderson

By LoReta Phelps

"Scotty" Henderson was born in Venice, not Italy but California, in 1926, but moved to Culver City when he was ten. He attended Venice High School where he was active in athletics, especially the high and low hurdles.

While attending Venice High School he became interested in a pretty student at nearby Santa Monica High School. This "interest" almost got him kicked out of his school.

After high school, Scotty joined the Navy and was assigned to an A.P.A. (amphibious personnel attack) ship. He spent two years in the South Pacific. While he was in the Navy, he married the pretty Santa Monica student named Mary Jean.

After the Navy, Scotty went to work at M.G.M. studios, where his dad worked. But the studio went on strike and left him without a job, so he worked in construction for a time. A strange turn of events led him to tag along with a buddy to take the test for the LA Police Department. He passed, but his buddy didn't. While beginning work for the LAPD, he and his brother Tommy played semi-pro football. The PD frowned on his playing, so it was discontinued. He did motorcycle duty, and was sent to Italy for a month to test some. While there, he was able to visit with his Navy son, who was stationed on Cyprus. After 22 years, he was forced to retire as a result of a terrible accident. He was hit head-on by a car!

After some recuperation, he went to work for a Ford dealership, managing their car rental department. This was followed by going into partnership with another fellow, building a warehouse and doing some trucking for two years.

But Scotty missed law enforcement and was happy, when the opportunity came, to be back in it. He was hired by the California Department of Justice to be the bodyguard for Evelle Younger, the current Attorney general for the State. When George Deukmejian followed Younger, he became his bodyguard. While Deukmejian was governor, Scotty managed his LA office for two years. At this time, he was appointed to the State Parole Board, where he remained until nine years later, when he retired for the second time.

Meanwhile, the Henderson family increased to two boys and two girls. Now the family includes eight grandchildren and three great grandchildren. The oldest son, who recently retired, became a policeman while his dad was still on the force.

Scotty and Mary Jean moved here from Fallbrook, as a result of helping her brother, Wes Hicks, find a place to live. Wes bought one day, and they bought the next. Then later, when he saw their present home Scotty's brother Tommy, bought their first home. So now all three live in the Village. It has become a real family affair.

Scotty is the only member of his family who wasn't born in Scotland. So why did he get the nickname "Scotty"?
